

“Cretaceous Park” Ticket Voucher

Junior and Senior WBRSF Participants

The Wood Buffalo Youth Science Foundation, Keyano College, and the Oil Sands Discovery Centre are pleased to present “Cretaceous Park: Dinosaurs and Plants of Ancient Alberta”. This event will consist of two short talks given by world-renowned palaeontologist Dr. Philip Currie and palaeobotanist Dr. Eva Koppelhus. These opening talks for the 2009 Wood Buffalo Regional Science Fair will begin at 7:30pm on April 2nd, 2009 at the Oil Sands Discovery Centre. Admission is free and all are welcome to attend.

A limited number of tickets for this event have been set aside for Junior and Senior entrants to the Wood Buffalo Regional Science Fair. These tickets will be issued on a first come, first served basis. You must include the registration number supplied to you by our automated online registration system when filling out this form. To register for the Fair, please visit our website at www.wbrsf.ca.

Please complete this form to acquire tickets for yourself and up to two family members. Bring this form to the Keyano College Theatre Box Office to claim your tickets. Tickets which are not claimed by March 20, 2009 will be made available to the general public.

Participant Information

Name:
Do you require wheelchair access or assistance being seated? <input type="radio"/> Yes <input type="radio"/> No
School (or organization):	Your Email Address or Phone Number:
Science Fair Project Registration Number:	Number of Tickets Required (Limit 3 per participant):

Declaration:

I certify that the information above is, to the best of my knowledge, accurate and complete.

Student (Please Print)

Student (Signature)

Date Signed

Parent or Guardian (Please Print)

Parent or Guardian (Signature)

Date Signed